

Media Advisory

July 7, 2010

RAY GALLUCCI HONORED BY GOVERNMENT OF ITALY

The Italian Trade Commission of the Consulate General of Italy has honored Ray Gallucci, President of Gallucci's Italian Foods the 2010 Distinguished Service Award for Ray's key role in promoting the Italian Way of Life.

Started in 1912 by Ray Gallucci's grandfather, and now in its 99th year of business, Gallucci's Italian Foods serves Northeast Ohioans with premier imported Italian food products. Ray Gallucci has kept the family tradition alive by maintaining strong ties to Italian families in Italy that export the very best meats, cheese, pasta, olive oil and specialty food items. Gallucci Italian Foods continues to be a centerpiece of the Cleveland Italian-American Community by providing authentic ethnic food that keeps Italian family traditions alive in families across the region.

In honoring Mr. Gallucci, Aniello Musella, Italian Trade Commissioner states, "The years you (Ray Gallucci), have dedicated to the promotion and sale of authentic Italian products within the United States has created an intimate relationship between the two cultures. Thanks to your committed work ethic, the appreciation of Italian foods has been elevated to heights it has never reached before. It is for this remarkable devotion to the Italian food industry, and the genuine appreciation to the Italian way of life, that we have chosen to present you with the 2010 Distinguished Service Award."

Mr. Gallucci has been presented with an Award Certificate and an impressive lapel pin commemorating this award.

For More Information or to visit Gallucci Italian Foods, please call: 216-881-0045 ext 19